DISCLOSURE AND CONSENT TO USE ELECTRONIC DOCUMENTS AND SIGNATURES

From time to time, the University of Florida (we, us, our, or UF) may be required by law to provide you certain written notices or disclosures and may also choose to provide you with agreements, statements, authorizations, acknowledgments and other documents (collectively, "Documents"). Described below are the terms and conditions for providing such Documents electronically through the UFDocuSign electronic signing system. This supplements all other agreements you have with UF; however, in the case of any inconsistency, the terms herein shall control as applied to your consent to receive and sign Documents electronically through UFDocuSign. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document. If you are agreeing on behalf of a business entity, you also agree that you have the requisite authority to consent to this Disclosure and Consent to Use Electronic Records and Signatures on behalf of the entity.

All Documents may be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise, in accordance with the procedures described herein, we may, in our sole discretion, provide electronically to you through the UFDocuSign system all Documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship. We may always, in our sole discretion, provide you with any Documents in paper form, even if you have chosen to receive it electronically.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request a paper copy of any Document provided or made available electronically by us. You will have the ability to download and print documents we send to you through the UFDocuSign system during and immediately after the signing session. To request delivery from us of paper copies of the Document(s) previously provided electronically, you must send an e-mail reply to the sender of the electronic Document(s) and state your e-mail address, full name, US Postal address, and telephone number.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive Documents from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive Documents only in paper format. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the UFDocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of an UFDocuSign envelope. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically. You will no longer be able to use the UFDocuSign system to receive Documents electronically from us or to electronically sign Documents from us.

If you withdraw your consent, it will become effective only after a reasonable period of time has passed to allow us to process such request. If you elect to receive Documents only in paper format, your withdrawal of consent will have no legal effect on the validity or enforceability of any Documents provided to you in electronic form or electronically signed by you through UFDocuSign prior to the effective date of your withdrawal. Withdrawing your consent means you will be sent and sign Documents in paper form going forward.

To inform us that you no longer want to receive future Documents in electronic form you may:

- i. decline to sign a document from within your UFDocuSign session, and on the subsequent page, select the check-box indicating you wish to withdraw your consent; or
- ii. send us an e-mail to UF-DocuSign@ufl.edu and in the body of such request state your
